

Child centered, family focused

Is your child

- Out of control, violent or threatening?
- Defiant and difficult?
- Involved in the juvenile justice system?
- Angry and depressed?
- At risk of school suspension?

Are you

- Routinely called by your child's school?
- Isolated, out of options, desperate for help?

Wraparound Tulsa can help

Wraparound Tulsa helps children ages 6-18 with severe emotional and behavioral health needs and their families create a plan and support system. Wraparound also helps families find the best services in the community to meet their needs. Anyone can make a referral and the services are free.

What you can expect

Your care team includes a family support provider who has raised a child with emotional and behavioral health issues and a care coordinator who identifies and helps direct services.

Wraparound Tulsa is different

- Your family creates and directs the plan of care and support team
- Your team is available to help 24 hours a day, 7 days a week

Classes and support groups include

- Anger management
- Reducing stress levels
- Choosing "battles" wisely
- Improving family cooperation
- Eating disorders, substance abuse
- Social and communication skills

Associated Centers for Therapy

A non-profit community mental health center

Helping build better lives through behavioral health and substance abuse services

7010 S. Yale, Suite 215
Tulsa, OK 74136
918.492.2554 phone
918.494.9870 fax
info@actcares.org
actcares.org

Wraparound Tulsa
918.492.2554 x330 phone
918.495.0779 fax
mkeesee@actcares.org

Celebrating 25 years of caring

The Tulsa Children's Behavioral Health Community Team brings agencies together to create innovative programs and to eliminate gaps in services for children, adults and families